

WOODLAND HILLS CHRISTIAN ACADEMY

Financial Policy

WOODLAND HILLS CHRISTIAN ACADEMY is a church school with an annual budget that is dependent upon student tuition and other fees, plus gifts from friends of the school, for operating expenses. Our school falls under the umbrella of the church, which is a 501 (c) (3) organization, and all gift contributions are tax-deductible. (Tuition is not tax-deductible.)

Attendance in a private school is a privilege, a commitment that involves expenses. WOODLAND HILLS CHRISTIAN ACADEMY appreciates your commitment to Christian education, demonstrated by the desire to have your child educated in our school.

The following financial information provides some clarity on your basic school costs. Monthly fees are to be paid by the 1st of each month. Fees paid after the 5th of each month will be considered late. A $25 weekly late fee will be applied after the 5th of each month.
